BOXERS PREPARE FOR RING BATTLES ON MONDAY NIGHT

Kid Rous to Meet Joe Gans, and Young Norfolk Down for an Eight-Round Muzzle With Battling Gaehe.

As refreshing as a preprohibition mint julep on a hot July day was the news that was waiting for the Memphis Chicks at the effect that the Memphis Chicks had at last regained their long-lost batting order.

One of the most pleasing features of the entire affair was that Lefty Sigman was battered out of the box. Sigman is loved by the Chicks about like Billy Bryan loves hoes, and nothing pleases them more when they see him, which is why they must have made them when they found him in the box Thursday night. They were happy to see him under the shower in one round.

TIED FOR THE LEAD

The victory of the Chicks Thursday was a timely one, for the New Orleans Pelicans took a fall out of the Little Rock Travelers, which places the Chicks on even terms with the Little Rockers for the league leadership. Each has won one game and lost the same number of games.

The Tribe has three more days in Mobile, among them the day when the Bears have been in a slump for the past few days, having won only one game out of their last four.

Manager McClellan, of the Chicks, has told the Bears that they will use either Haid or Lukavovic, both right-handers.

MACK BANISHED AGAIN. It's getting to be a common occurrence for Chief McClellan, of the Tribe, to be banished out of the ball park of the Southern League. McClellan, Empire Blue and White, has been banished from the game for the third time in as many games.

Every Chicks on the club with the exception of Bill Meyers, catcher, got a hit in the game. Dixie Carroll got four.

At the present rate of fines being levied against Southern League players and managers from day to day, the Dixie major will have to provide a separate vault for all the kate that is being collected.

Not a day passes but what some unfortunate athlete with an unruly tongue gets a fine for his own inconsideration. The umpire who thinks of him, and is accordingly assessed a good, stiff piece of money.

The accumulation of the long green at league headquarters has been steadily increasing since the season began, and the organization will be in need of reinforcing unless the ball players become more tame, which is hardly probable.

One of the reasons for so much fining this year is the inclination of the umpires to slap a fine on an athlete the very first moment he opens his eyes in protest against a decision. The majority of Southern League umpires will give a player a fine for a word, but as soon as he starts toward the batter he gives a lordly wave of his paw, and if the player fails to crawl in a hole somewhere, he sticks him with a $5 or $10 fine.

This season's umpires are in too big a hurry to show their authority and to get on with the game. Many an umpire tries to cover up his own inefficiency by throwing the books into a player.

The Nashville club is doing well, but the fact that they have jumped in the last three days.

MOORE MEETS TREMAINE. Pat Moore, Memphis batsmanweight, concluded Friday training at Cleveland with Carl Tremaine, of Cleveland, which is scheduled for Saturday night at the Sixth City.

Moore boxed Jimmy Murphy eight rounds here last Monday night. Murphy is also matched with Tremaine June 12 at the Sixth City.

Following the Tremaine match, Moore is to return to Memphis and take a three-month rest, which he badly needs, as he has been fighting regularly once and sometimes twice a week.

There have been many complaints about Southern League umpires this season, but slip the palm to Dan Pfeiffer, the veteran of the league. Dan has had less trouble than any man in the league, all because he is human and because he always gives a player a chance to state his side of a case.

PACING EVEN TO FEATURE CARD OF TRI-STATE CLUB

Vanda Vincent to Contest With Tip Top and Romac Mills, Program Looks To Be the Best of the Year.

This week's program looks to be the best offered this season by the Tri-State Driving club, five races with a total of 19 drivers being on the card. The free-for-all race continues to be the chief attraction and this week it is to be followed by an additional entry.

Vanda Vincent is entered by Dr. Haynes and will go to the post at 1:30 over Tip Top and Romac Mills. Tip Top has three victories to his credit but as many as six, but McClellan believes with a third entry his chances of winning with Romac Mills will be greatly enhanced. Vanda Vincent won easily last week in 2:11, the fastest time in a race so far this season.

ANCIENT RING ENEMIES

When Rous and Gans step through the ropes, it will be a case of two ancient ring enemies already being arranged for the regular weekly show, and the principals are at work daily at the S. A. C. preparing for their Monday night battles.

It will be a double-windup affair. Kid Rous and Young Joe Gans, negro lightweights and two of the clearest ringers in the country, will meet in one of the windups consisting of eight rounds. In the other half Young Norfolk, of St. Louis, and Battling Gaehe, of Memphis, negro heavies, will step eight rounds or less. It will be a popular prize affair.

Lightweights and heavyweights will hold the boards at the South-eastern A. C. next Monday night. Two eight-round bouts and two four-round affairs have already been arranged for the regular weekly show, and the principals are at work daily at the S. A. C. preparing for their Monday night battles.
